A word from the head teacher

I would sincerely like to thank the staff, my learners and parents for such a smooth second week of our first term.

It is such a delight to see all the children's smiling faces as they arrive at their classrooms every morning.

The beginning of the year is such an exciting time and, across our school we are quite intentional in the ways that we support children to transition to their new teacher and quickly learn to love being at school.

The school has a really good feel about it and we are all looking forward to another excellent year. I am extremely proud of the quality of teachers, education assistants and non-teaching staff we have at The Playstreet School - they are truly second to none.

If I had three pieces of advice to give to parents and guardians, it would be:

1. 'Talk to your child's teacher,' 2. 'Talk to your child's teacher,' 3. 'Talk to your child's teacher.'

They are a great resource for you and they want your child to be successful as much as you do.

I wish you all an enjoyable weekend.

Kind regards,

Elvis Waitbaka.

Our assembly

Words cannot explain the experience we had. I wanted to use the dictionary to type out synonyms of the word amazing but my humble nature couldn't allow filling the newsletter with words.

Star students of the week:

Grade 1 East – Tula Kibosia

Grade 1 West – Ayiera Kombo

Grade 2 – Funmilola Adegbenro

Grade 3 – Phillip Gichu

Grade 4 – Janelle Zarah

Special Thanks

- A big thank you to Teacher Daniel who did a good job in conducting the assembly with the Grade 4 learners.
- Wanafunzi wa Gredi ya Nne walifanya kazi bora, heko kwao!
- Mama Leo and Peter for beginning the story and creating the suspense and anticipation of how the story will end.
- Mama Kweli for finishing the story with a bang.
- All the teachers and the learners for their active participation and concentration. You were a good audience.

Good morning everyone,

Today, we gather to celebrate and show our pride for our community. As we march through the streets, let us remember the hard work, determination, and resilience that define us as a people.

Today's parade is a symbol of the progress we've made and a testament to the bright future that lies ahead. It's a time to come together, to celebrate our diverse cultural heritage and to remember the sacrifices of those who come before us.

So, let us march with our heads held high, our spirits lifted and our hearts filled with pride. Let us show the world the strength and unity of our community.

Thank you and have a wonderful ~~parade~~ day!

We now welcome the headteacher, Mr. Elvis
