A WORD FROM THE HEADTEACHER

What a week!

The learners ended their week by a dress up day as they were learning about the different careers the world has to offer. We were impressed by the different thought process we have here at Playstreet School; we had youtubers, gamers, doctors, engineers, logistics, scientists....

The fathers and father figures at Playstreet School did not fail as the turnout was amazing. They did not shy away in telling us what they do and why they like doing what they do. One parent decided to go all out and gave out reflective vests and we mixed concrete in school.

The boys club suggested a nyama choma hangout with their children, a suggestion the school liked and more details in the planning will be shared.

For identification privacy I will use their occupations
